Ad-hoc charter aircraft Atr 42

Short range business aircraft on demand flights

Ideal for groups! You want to organize a factory tour in France or a public relations event in a European subsidiary? The ATR 42 is a modern aircraft, perfectly adapted to transport groups of 40 to 50 people on personalized trips such as Caen to Rodez or from Lannion to Cork, without stopovers and no wasted time. It also allows use of secondary airports not served by regular flights. Modern and efficient commercial airliner, the ATR 42 is environmentally friendly as it consumes less fuel and emits less CO2.
